OLLIE JAMES

He and Others Have Narrow Escape From Death.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—Representative Ollie James of the First district of Kentucky, and other passengers who arrived here today on a Chesapeake & Ohio train from the east, had a narrow escape from death last night when their train jumped the track between Ashland and Lexington, Ky., then dumped across the steel cross-ties of a trestle over a swollen mountain stream and came to a stop on the opposite side. The engine's tender and all of the coaches, with the exception of the last Pullman, left the rails, but the momentum was sufficient to carry the train safely over the gorge.

Saved Many From Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, lagrippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it's the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists.

HOGS KILLED BY HAIL
Montgomery County Swept
By Windstorm.

Clarksville, Tenn., May 1.—News received in this city to-day states one of the worst wind storms in the history of Montgomery county swept a large area in districts Three, Five, Six and Eleven, last Saturday afternoon. Many buildings were blown down and thousands of dollars' worth of damage done by heavy hail, which accompanied the wind.

Hail as large as hens' eggs fell, striking with sufficient force to kill animals and penetrate roofs on buildings.

A drove of about sixty hogs in a pasture on the farm of Joe Dunlop were killed. The hail undoubtedly fell from a great altitude, as was indicated by the depth it penetrated the earth.

A Father's Vengeance.

Would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockford, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last he gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. Its the best kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, Tired feeling, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, warn of kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware: Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c at all druggists.

Time to sack your hams. Sacks for sale at this office.

TRANSFER ASKED.

Attorneys for Morris Damage Suit File New Petition.

Attorneys for the Tennessee Central Railroad have filed a petition asking that the $30,000 damage suit filed by J. D. Capps, administrator for Miss Fannie Morris, the Christian county girl who was burned to death in a wreck near Clarksville, Tenn., be transferred to the federal court at Owehsboro for trial. The petition recites that the railroad company is a Tennessee corporation and its principal office is in that state while the plaintiff and beneficiaries under the suit live in Kentucky, thus making the parties interested residents of different states. For this reason they ask that the hearing be before the federal court.

Balked at Cold Steel.

"I wouldn't let a doctor cut my foot off," said H. D. Ely, Bantam, Ohio, "although a horrible ulcer had been the plague of my life for four years. Instead I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my foot was soon completely cured." Heals Burns, Boils, Sores, Bruises, Eczema, Pimples, Corns. Surest Pile cure. 25c at all druggists.

EXILED PRINCESS DEAD.

Russian Starved Herself After 20 Years' of Seclusion.

St. Petersburg, May 1.—Princess Sachivoscos is dead, after twenty years' voluntary seclusion in two rooms of the palace at Moscow, to which she retired after the death of her betrothed on the eve of the wedding. Her death was due to starvation. Notes and coins amounting to $500,000 were found in her rooms.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. It's the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25c at all druggists.

SCHOOL TEACHERS

In Fatal Wreck and Two Are Killed.

Two persons are dead, seven missing and at least fifty injured, some of them fatally, as the result of a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad near Martin's Creek, N. J., Saturday. The train carried 169 school teachers bound from Utica and Syracuse, N. Y., to Washington, D. C. The wreckage caught fire and every car was burned almost instantly. Charred bodies were found in the ruins.

NOW THE AERIAL POSTCARD

Latest Novelty the Outcome of the Desire of Man to Conquer the Air.

Have you seen the "aerial postcards?" They are the latest novelty in the line, and those who collect postcards are delighted at the idea that before long they will be able to add to their albums a "carte aeriennne," dropped from the clouds by one of their friends passing in an aeroplane. The new card bears a printed request that the person finding it on the ground will be so good as to take it to the nearest postoffice, whence it will be forwarded to its destination. A space is reserved for the mention of the altitude at which the message left sender's hands, and the situation, approximately, of the aeroplane at the time of sending. A photograph of the monoplane or biplane figures on the other side.

It is said that a request has been made to the minister of posts and telegraphs that a special stamp should be created for these aerial missives, but so far I have not heard that M. Millerand has undertaken to do so.—Paris Figaro.

HIS WAY OF THANKING HER

Col. T. W. Higginson Pays Young Woman Gracious Compliment on His Eighty-seventh Birthday.

Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, at the recent celebration in Boston of his eighty-seventh birthday, said:

"I find old age to be an enjoyable period of life."

That Colonel Higginson is happy in old age is witnessed by the kindly humor that illumines all his utterances.

Thus, on his birthday, a beautiful young lady, an admirer of his books, ventured to bring him a bouquet of roses. Colonel Higginson asked her name, and then he said:

"You live, I suppose, with your parents?"

"No, sir," the lady replied. "My parents are in heaven. I live with my husband."

"Your husband, too, is in heaven!" said Colonel Higginson, gallantly.

WELSH CAVE DWELLERS.

Cave dwellers still survive among us here and there and there is living at Llandudno an aged woman known colloquially as "Miriam's Ogo." She is ninety-three years of age and till quite lately lived in a cave on the side of the Great Orme. There she bore and brought up a family of 13 children, one of whom is a stalwart "bowman" of the Llandudno lifeboat.

Miriam's husband, also a cave man, made himself a pair of wings out of feathers for the purpose of getting up and down the face of the cliff, but his clever efforts in aviation led at last to a serious accident.—Cardiff Western Mail.

QUITE ENOUGH.

"Oh, sir, will you please come at once? There are three brutes jumping on a poor organ grinder."
"Is he a big organ grinder?" queried the old gentleman, calmly.
"No, no, sir; quite a little man. Oh, come at once, sir, or it will be too late!"
"I don't see why I should interfere," replied the old gentleman. "If he's a small man the three men don't need any help."—Tit-Bits.

WAYS OF FAME.

"Did you really say all the clever things attributed to you by the anecdote writers?"
"No," replied Senator Sorghum; "I didn't exactly say 'em. But I indorsed 'em."

THE LESSER EVIL.

"I always choose the lesser of two evils."
"Do you?"
"Yes. When I met my wife I was engaged to a much bigger girl."

HIS SIMPLE WAY.

Mrs. Given—Will you remove the snow for a dollar?
Weary Willie—Yes'm. Me method is to pray for rain.—Harper's Bazar.

BEATEN.

Sankler—Has Fortier attached his new piano player?
Thaylam—No, but the sheriff has.

Worth Weight in Gold.

Abingdon, Va.—Mrs. Jennie McCall, of this place, says, "I had been troubled with female complaints, for over ten years. I could not walk or stand on my feet, and had been almost confined to the house, for a long time. I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now I can walk anywhere I want to go. Cardui is worth its weight in gold." This is a high estimate on a plain, herb medicine, yet there are thousands of women who would gladly pay this price for a remedy to relieve their suffering. Cardui has helped others. Why not you? Try it. Your druggist sells it, in $1.00 bottles.
